

The Derby: Northampton Saints v Leicester Tigers ticket offer

This year the biggest clash in English club rugby, Northampton Saints vs Leicester Tigers, will be held at the 80,000-seat Twickenham Stadium – and we are offering YOU the opportunity to attend at an unbeatable price.

This will be an East-Midlands derby like no other, as the game is being played in aid of Rob Horne; a former Saints player who was tragically forced to retire from rugby at the end of last season after sustaining a career-ending injury playing in the Derby against Tigers.

As well as raising money for former Australia international Horne, the match represents the first time the two club giants have locked horns at Twickenham since the 2013 Premiership Final.

A plethora of superstars will be on show on the hallowed turf, with Saints boasting the likes of England captain Dylan Hartley and British & Irish Lions Courtney Lawes, James Haskell and Dan Biggar amongst their ranks, while England internationals Ben Youngs, George Ford, Manu Tuilagi and Jonny May could run out for Tigers.

A scintillating fixture came right down to the wire the last time the sides met in April, with Saints edging out Tigers 27-21 in a nail-biting finish to the Premiership clash which put a serious dent in Leicester's play-off hopes

A special price of £20 for adults and £10 for juniors (under-18s) is on offer to all, so invite your friends and family too!
